To whom it concerns,

Jaliya presented a wonderful program at Educational Park Branch library on Saturday February 21, 2009. The troupe played African drums to begin the event, and then brought a plethora of materials for the families to make African dolls. We had an outstanding audience of 60+, and every family walked away with at least one handmade doll. The Jaliya troupe also allowed interested library patrons play the drums. Everyone had a great time. Jaliya is very valuable to our community.

Thank you,
